NARRATIVE:

Davis, an active member of the Crips street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes felon in possession of a firearm, prohibited possession of ammunition, carrying a concealed weapon on person, carry a loaded firearm in public, possession of controlled substance, purchase cocaine base for sale, possession of controlled substance in prison and violation of supervised release. Davis has served three prison terms, the longest being 48 months for purchase cocaine base for sale. He was released most recently, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 06/22/2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Davis absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Davis qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for purchase cocaine base for sale is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as an active gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
